Congratulations to Colin Ward overall winner for the third year running and to Richard Price who ran Colin very close with the last event of the season to decide, and all the category winners right down to Andrew Walker the Lanterne Rouge, making Essex Roads CC the major prize winners of the competition.

A good entry into the competition but only forty qualifiers, some failed because once again group three events lost due to road works and weather, hard luck for Stu the organizer of the Crawley Wheelers sporting, who cancelled due to fog and then decided to run again and the new date was cancelled due to road works, but he is back again for 2016 on Good Friday. Ken Baker has decided to stop promoting the Colchester Rovers 47, many thanks Ken for ten good years, and a new promoter for 2016, well done Colchester Rovers. Unfortunately we have lost the Eagle RC event as they could not get a suitable date.

Once again thanks to all supporters throughout the season, especially the marshals and helpers for the mid-week time trial. Look forward to seeing you at the prize presentation on 10 January, changed to Leaden Roding Village Hall, most of you are familiar with the venue.
