Congratulations to Mark Arnold for his first place and all the award winners right down to Colin White who showed determination to finish the series. Once again Antony Stapleton managed to qualify with the last counting event, but this year made equal third place tying with Andrew Leggett. Commiseration to those competitors who did not qualify, especially those that failed due to the cancellation of the SPOCO 10. This year has been blighted with cancellations, first the Maldon Hilly, rained off, the Woolwich 10, lack of entries, the SPOCO 10 and Essex Roads 25, both down to the same road closure farce, although Lea Marshall had time to change her event into a 10 mile. Once more my thanks to all riders who have supported the competition this year.

Again, committed involvement from Andy Sheridan, who has organized the two SPOCO SC time trials and managed the web site, and of course Robin Johnson, with his generous support, also Fran and Jim Hornett, Mick Brushett, Denny Cracknell, Roy Godbeer, Fred Little, Mike Street and Ken Wheeler, for their help with the time trials. I look forward to seeing you at the prize presentation in January. GP
