Congratulations to Colin Ward overall winner, and all the category winners right down to James Bromley the Lanterne Rouge, it's James first attempt at the competition

New events in the calendar for this season, the Finsbury 10 lived up to its claim as a true sporting course with a really good climb to the finish, and the Eagle 45, quite a change from the E1, to a rolling circuit of several laps. Hopefully more of you will be able to ride these events next season, along with newcomers the CC Sudbury 22 mile and the San Fairy Ann 50.

An extraordinary number of events cancelled this year, only one due to weather, and some to road works, I don't think its worth mentioning the other reasons.

Once again thanks to all supporters throughout the season, especially the marshals for the mid-week time trials, who have all been lauded previous years, the time trial organizer Andy Sheridan has now decided to take a well earned retirement, a job well done. Next season sees the demise of the mid-week SPOCO SC 25 mile, mainly due to a combination of high costs and low entry, "if you don't use it you lose it", just the E91/10 left.

Don't forget the Cycle Jumble on 23rd November at Leaden Roding village hall from 9 am, Robin Johnson presiding, and the Annual Prize presentation in January, a good venue for a club run, excellent refreshments at both events.
